Saturday, 16th November.

Fourth meeting, held in Mr. Dymond's studio.

Present;— Dymond, Lefleur, Brymer, Harris, Macpherson, Mc Lennan, Townsend, Torrance, Davies, Arthy, Burgess, Inghes.

Minutes of previous meeting read and confirmed.

Moved by Townsend, seconded by Brymer;— That a copy of the Constitution, as amended at the previous meeting, be incorporated into the minutes of the present meeting, ~~that the~~ Constitution be printed, together with the names of members of the Club, past and present, from the foundation.

Moved in amendment by Harris, seconded by Lefleur, that all the words in the motion from "that the Constitution . . . foundation" be struck out. Amendment carried. A copy of the revised Constitution is therefore inserted with the minutes of the present meeting.

The committee on the printing of samuels by E.B. Brownlow reported the results of their interviewing Messrs. and Bently, giving estimated cost of publishing the work. Some discussion took place both as to the number of copies that should be printed, and as to the form that the book should take, whether in boards or in paper. It was finally moved by Mr. Townsend, seconded by Lefleur, that Mr. Lennan be requested to make arrangements for printing an edition of the work; the limit of cost was fixed at $125/25.00
